

I am in total support of this law especially now that these "telemarketers" are allowed to call our cell phones and use our minutes for their bidding that noone is interested. There are so many other avenues for advertisement, why invade our privacy but harrasing us at our homes or in our offices or on our cell phones. Do not abosish this law - abolish telemarketing instead.